

Abstract by Bert Van 't Land - VeeManager 3.0: CRVs way of combining web-based herd management software, on-farm devices and highly qualified services to make the farmers life more convenience

CRV has developed a new version of its web-based herd management tool "VeeManager". The strength of the tool is that data of various sources is brought together and processed to tailor-made information for the farmer, his employees and his advisors