

Abstract by Johannes Frandsen - Key Point Indicators Check - a Benchmarking sytem

Building systems to use data from the Cattle Database in order to present decision support for the cattle farmer is one of the big obligations for Danish Cattle Federation. One of these system is Key Indicator Check, which is a very flexible benchmarking system build as an application connected to the huge cattle database system in Denmark. The system contains data from all different sources around the cattle production I Denmark.