

Abstract by Karl O'Connell – IgenoP

I GenoP is the international project for the collection, storage and sharing of Genotype Data. In order to facilitate this sharing between the members of I GenoP, a centralised system has been developed by ICBF which is comprised of a web site and database.