

Abstract by Nils Henning Nielsen - Logistics of the milksample – data and milk, with focus on additional services on recording samples

The paper and presentation will show an example how to deal with ordering, supplying, and analysis of milk samples on individual cows from a recording day. We will show the service we provide, how the farmer or his adviser book-in for the analysis, and how the logistics of the sample handling works out.