1 Background

The purpose of this paper is to provide the terms of reference for the ICAR Global Reach Working Group (GR-WG) which were approved by the ICAR Board at its meeting on 20th October 2016.

This version has been updated to incorporate changes from the rebranding of ICAR and a number of minor wording corrections.

2 Objectives of the GR-WG

The objectives of the GR-WG are based on ICAR's strategic goal of becoming a truly global organisation focused on providing members involved in animal recording with valuable benefits and services. Animal recording has a major role to play in helping animal farmers to provide the world's growing population with food that is nutritious, affordable, sustainable and safe. ICAR's well-established infrastructure has considerable potential to be of benefit to other countries, other species, other animal products, and other farming systems, than those that currently form the core of ICAR's activities.

The mission of the GR-WG is to bring the benefits of ICAR to the rest of the world.

The GR-WG will achieve this mission through the following objectives:

- a. Identifying and prioritising those regions and countries to which ICAR can deliver the greatest benefits in aspects of animal recording in the near future (three to five years) and longer term (five to fifteen years).
- b. Engage with leaders - political, farming, technical, and economic - in the priority regions and countries to:
 - Understand. Build an understanding within ICAR of the ways in which it can provide value.
 - Take Action. Initiating actions that will result in ICAR being able to provide the greatest possible benefits to potential member organisations in those areas.
- c. Increase ICAR's membership by recruiting relevant organisations in the priority regions and countries to become full and active members of ICAR.
- d. Identify and prioritise ICAR guideline and service developments that are needed to ensure ICAR provides valuable benefits and services to its members in the priority regions and countries.
